- Take the N2 highway from Cape Town past the airport.
- Follow the N2 through the traffic lights of Somerset West.
- After the Somerset West/Strand bridge, look out for the BP petrol station on your left.
- Turn left off N2 into Reunion Drive just after the BP petrol station. Continue straight through the 2 circles at Somerset West Lakes, and proceed under the railway bridge.
- Turn right at the new traffic lights into Old Sir Lowry's Pass Road. Travel down the entrance to Waterkloof and continue down the hill towards Sir Lowry's Pass Village. After 1-2 minutes you will see a Church after the Coca-Cola store.
- Turn left at the Church into Knorhoek road in the direction of Wedderwill and Knorhoek. Follow the brick paved private road for 2 Km's (beware the invisible speed bumps) and at the end you will see the entrance to the Knorhoek farm (est. 1795). Please sign the visitors book at the gate before you proceed past the Cape Dutch Homestead, continue up the hill past the stables and fields where you may be fortunate enough to see Zebra's, Springbok and other antelope on your left. Cross over the railway line and drive into the entrance of the Idiom's Da Capo Vineyards and following the tar road to Idiom.
